

4/6/75

Dear Ms. Brako,

I'm sorry not to have had time to respond to your letter of 3/20 earlier.

The long days do not permit me to keep up with all I must do.

I appreciate the time you have taken and am glad to know about these letters to the editor. They may indeed be important. But it is beyond my immediate capacity to search them out. If you ever recall any more about them I'd appreciate knowing.

There is not much I can add to our phone conversation, for which I also thank you. As you now know, there were known alleged plots of that period. These letters could relate to them or could relate to the successful one.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
